Grassroots
Philanthropy

Thank you for your contribution to Bread for the Journey of Santa Fe.

Together we can improve life in northern New Mexico.

We offer a unique opportunity to see your contribution go directly to those in need – usually to new projects so small and simple that they would never be funded by larger, more conventional agencies. As a volunteer-run grassroots philanthropy, we serve our community with dignity, effectiveness and as little administrative cost as possible. Each year we invite our donors, grant recipients, and volunteers to gather and share the pride and joy of our work. We hope someday you'll join us...
